Dear Mr. Kewell:

We are anxious to secure for our library a copy of your Annual giving the names and addresses of your members.

I assure you that your kindness will be greatly appreciated.

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir:

Replying to your communication of March 27th, I beg to state that we have issued no Annual volume for three years; and it is against the rules of the Society to furnish names and addresses of our members.

Very truly yours,

Curator
